The Tenth ESM 2006 will return home to the beautiful mountains of Bavaria, Germany, where participants will experience scientific presentations and workshops, an active outdoor day, Bavarian hospitality, and the final evening banquet including the presentation of the 10,000 Euro novel award for the best scientific work in pressure distribution measurement.

ESM 2006 will be held July 25 - 28, 2006, in conjunction with the Munich hosted World Congress of Biomechanics (July 30 - August 4, 2006). ESM 2006 will be located at ArabellaSheraton Alpenhotel at Spitzingsee, located one hour south of Munich, in the Bavarian Alps.

Attendees will have the opportunity to participate in both meetings and enjoy Bavaria for a while longer.

ESM 2006 will start with hands-on workshops Tuesday, July 25, 2006 followed by the Welcome Reception at 17.00 in Storms' Art Gallery, Munich, Germany. Buses will transport attendees to the conference venue after the Reception.

The novel 2006 award, with a prize of 10,000 Euro, will be presented for the best scientific manuscript in the field of dynamic pressure distribution analysis. The paper must be entirely original, not published at the time of the meeting in any journal nor submitted for publication to any journal or book. The paper must describe a scientific study including pressure distribution measurement. Deadline for submission of abstracts is Feb 28, 2006. Six of these abstracts will be nominated for the novel award by April 1, 2006. The nominated authors will be requested to send a full length (25 page maximum, double spaced) paper by June 15, 2006 and will present the paper at the meeting in a 30 minute talk. A blind review of papers will be conducted by a prominent panel of experts. The novel award will be presented to the winner at the banquet. The general abstract instruction to authors can be found in the 'Authors' section at www.elsevier.com/locate/clinbiomech.

Abstracts for oral and poster presentations in the field of pressure distribution measurements not participating in the novel award must be submitted by Feb 28, 2006. Participants will be informed of acceptance of presentations by April 1, 2006. Awards for the Best Poster and Best Presentation will also be presented. Each award will be to the value of 500 Euro.
